“WHEN SOULS MEET”
MYSTICAL LANDSCAPE PAINTINGS BY JENNIFER HAMILTON

VERNISSAGE THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28TH
4:00 PM - 7:00 PM AT UTC

“When Souls Meet” brings together a collection of UTC community member Jennifer Hamilton’s paintings. Inspired by Hilma af Klint’s channeled spiritualist paintings at the very beginning of abstraction, Jennifer chose the palette and metaphor of black & white & rainbows, alternating between geometric and totally abstract forms. Some of the pieces were responses to music, some were illustrations of emotional events and others came out of meditation and dreams.

Jennifer Hamilton was born in Goderich, Ontario and currently lives and works in the Laurentians forest and in Montreal. She is deeply interested in spiritual and religious practices and has researched and studied these fields at length. She holds a BFA from Queens University, where she studied painting, printmaking, and sculpture, and also attended fashion design school. Jennifer is the founder of WAY magazine, the creator of many public projects, and the curator of numerous gallery shows.
